White makes track debut

Larry White of Appomattox made his racing debut Saturday night at South Boston Speedway in his N.A.P.A. No. 77 Chevrolet Camaro.

White started in tenth position in the 14-car field and finished in eighth positon in the 25-lap street stock race.

White said his first race was mainly a learning experience so that he could get used to his car and the South Boston Speedway.

"Now that I have gotten the first race under my belt, I plan to race a lot harder and if all goes well, I hope to finish in the top five my next face," White said.

His next race will be this Saturday night at South Boston in the Pepsi 150. White expressed his thanks to all the people who came out to watch Saturday's race, as well as N.A.P.A. in Appomattox for their sponsorship.

Benefit tournament set

The Walter Hagan Benefit golf tournament is scheduled for Aug. 7 at Falling River Country Club, according to tournament organizers.

The tournament is being sponsored for the benefit of the Appomattox Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Tournament organizers will be canvassing the community seeking sponsors for the tournament teams. Sponsorship of a women's team will cost $40, and sponsorship of a men's team will cost $80, according to tournament spokesmen.

Winners in the men's and women's divisions will go on to compete in statewide competition, according to tournament spokesmen.

On the Friday preceeding the tournament, Gary Howard and Steve Webster will participate in a golf marathon, starting in the early morning and playing as long as daylight permits. The object of the exercise is to get in as many holes of golf as possible in the day. Sponsors will be sought to pledge various amounts per hole played.

According to tournament organizers, this is the first time a cancer benefit tournament has been held in Appomattox County. All proceeds from the event will go toward meeting the Appomattox Chapter's Cancer Society goal.

Refreshments will be provided for participants in the tournament, according to a tourney spokesman. For further information regarding the tournament, contact Carolyn Coleman at 352-5191 or Tony Guthrie at 993-2753.

Softball tourney set

A softball tournament sponsored by the Spout Spring Ruritan Club will be held Aug. 6-8 at the Appomattox Town Ball Park, according to a spokesman from the Spout Spring club.

Persons interested in obtaining information regarding the tournament may call 352-5091 or 352-8184 for information and entry forms.

Benefit tourney set

The American Cancer Society "Slow Pitch for Cancer" softball tournament has been re-scheduled for the weekend of July 31 and August 1. The tournament will be a five-game round robin with a single elimination competition to determine the top three overall winners. Trophies will be awarded to the first and second place winners in each bracket; to the first, second, and third place overall winners; and to the "most valuable player" of the tournament. The tournament will be played at the E. C. Glass and Miller Park fields and the entry fee is $65.00 per team; proceeds from the event will go to the Lynchburg unit of the American Cancer Society. For entry information, contact the American Cancer Society at 845-0973.

Mrs. Keith Lee Maxey

Hunter, Maxey wed

Miss Karen Lea Hunter and Mr. Keith Lee Maxey were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, July 10, 1982, at six o'clock in the evening at Quaker Memorial Presbyterian Church with the Rev. James Garland Thompson officiating the ceremony.

The bride escorted by her father, wore a formal gown featuring a high neckline with a fitted bodice and sleeves of schiffli lace. The gown flows from a natural waistline into a beautiful skirt of emroidered schiffli lace, which ends in a scalloped edged chapel length train. The matching fingertip illusion veil was embroidered with sprays of schiffli lace, enchancing a headpiece of lace and seed pearls.

The bride's bouquet of silk flowers formed a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, miniature carnations, lavender freshia, Frey, and baby's breath.

Miss Anne Kelley Hunter, currently of Rabat, Morocco was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of lilac satin, with a lilac chiffon overskirt accented with front tucks, and an ivory lace collar. She carried a natural colored basket of pale pink roses, miniature carnations, small tiger lillies, forget-me-nots, ivy, and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Miriam Bannon, cousin of the bride of Hackettstown, New Jersey; and Miss Ellen Lyons of Concord. The bridesmaids wore lavendar dresses similar to the maid of honor, and carried white baskets of pale pink roses, miniature carnations, tiger lillies, baby's breath, forget-me-nots, and ivy.

Mr. Robert Edward Maxey Jr. of Rustburg was his brother's best man. Ushers were Edward Brett Hunter, and Mark Kendall Hunter, brothers of the bride of Appomattox; Wayne Casalenuovo, cousin of the bridegroom of Lynchburg; and Spephen Farmer of Rustburg.

The mother of the bride wore a rose chiffon floor length gown, with a matching jacket. She wore a corsage of rose colored rosebuds and baby's breath. The mother of the groom wore a floor length gown of pale pink accented with a lace jacket, and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and baby's breath.

Following a Caribbean cruise, the couple will make their home in Rustburg.

Mrs. Steven Daniel Isaacs

Spitzer, Isaacs wed

The marriage of Jeannie Gayle Spitzer to Steven Daniel Isaacs took place Saturday, July 10, at 2 o'clock in Hyland Heights Baptist Church with the Rev. Mikeal Barlowe, pastor of the church, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Spitzer of Concord and Mr. Glenn C. Spitzer of Rustburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Isaacs of Rustburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Eric Spitzer was the matron of honor for her sister-in-law and attendants were Mrs. Wayne Isaacs, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Angie Isaacs, niece of the bridegroom; and Miss Claudia Gordon.

Wayne Isaacs was best man for his brother and ushers were Mr. Eric Spitzer, brother of the bride; Mr. Bobby Isaacs, nephew of the bridegroom; and Mr. Gary Large.

The bride is a graduate of James Madison University and is employed with the Appomattox Public School System.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He is employed as an engineer with The Lane Company in Altavista.

The couple will live in Rustburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Durie

Stanley, Durie wed

The marriage of Joyce Nash Stanley of Appomattox to Roger Lee Durie of Lynchburg took place June 26,1982 at 5 p.m. at the home of the bride.

The Rev. David Grove, pastor of Bethel Bible Baptist Church, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nash of Appomattox and the groom is the son of Mrs. Lucille Page Durie of Lynchburg and the late Charles T. Durie.

Terresa Ann Stanley, daughter of the bride, was maid of honor.

Ronnie G. Durie, brother of the groom was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the family of the groom and Mrs. Ralph (Dorothy) Harris at the bride's home. The couple are residing in Appomattox.

Mrs. Gary Rodney Snead

Kent, Snead are wed

The marriage of Scarlet Denise Kent and Gary Rodney Snead took place Saturday, May 22, 1982 at two o'clock in the afternoon at Woolen Mills Chapel in Charlottesville, Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kent of Charlottesville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene C. Snead of Charlottesville and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fulmer J. Burks of Gladstone.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a formal gown of organza with a Queen Anne neckline, long full bishop sleeves and chapel train. The walking-length veil was attached to a profile cap of matching lace.

Matron of honor was Barbara Madison, sister of the bride, of Charlottesville. Bridesmaid was Sharon Herrion, sister of the groom, also of Charlottesville.

Best man was Steve Snead, cousin of the groom and usher was Vernon Herrion, brother-in-law of the groom, both of Charlottesville.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the grooms parents.

After a wedding trip the couple are now residing in Charlottesville, Va.
